

Lusitan Code of Law Act

Preamble:

On the twenty first of July of 2021, PCRato06 proposed an act for the establishment of a Lusitan Code of Law.

1. All legislation since the Nation's inception is to be recorded in The Lusitan Code of Law.
  - a. Legislation that has since been repealed is to be crossed out, remaining in the Code of Law in the heretofore mentioned status.
    - i. A repealed law that is deemed to be controversial to remain in the Code of Law can be completely removed by a two thirds majority of the citizenry.
    - ii. The Monarch may, at times of emergency, censor said parts of repealed laws for the benefit of the Nation, without the requirement of vote, although a formal notice of said censorship must be given to the standing government.
2. The Lusitan Code of Law must be visible at all times to the citizens of the Nation, as well as foreign entities, making it impossible for The Monarch or Government to omit said Code of Law.
  - a. The only exception to the presence of said law is when a state of war has been declared.
    - i. The government or The Monarch can unilaterally omit said Code of Law to foreign actors. It must, however, remain visible to citizens of the Nation.
3. Legislature is to be always written on a separate page, as not to overlap with any previous legislature.
4. When referring to a specific law, all prefixes of the clause must be stated.
  - a. An example of written and oral referencing of a clause can be observed below:
    - i. Written: 'Under the Lusitan Code of Law Act 1.a.ii. ...'
    - ii. Oral: 'Under the Lusitan Code of Law Act clause 1. A, paragraph two...'
