

Lusitania-Reconstruction Era Mutual Friendship Treaty

Seeking to promote regional peace and stability, as well as to create a foundation for the joint resolution of future challenges, the Kingdom of Lusitania and the State of Reconstruction Era agree to the following terms:

1. Lusitania and Reconstruction Era recognize each other as independent sovereign states.
 - a. Both parties are to conduct diplomatic talks and the settlement of disagreements through official channels, respecting the rules-based international order.
 - b. Lusitania and Reconstruction Era will deal with each other as friendly governments and work to cement a productive and amicable relationship on the world stage.
2. The signatories of this Treaty recognize the territorial integrity and territorial claims of one another at the time of signing.
 - a. Should they arise, territorial disputes between the signatories or their dependencies will be resolved through diplomatic action.
3. Both parties agree to the establishment of embassies in each other's capital.
 - a. The jurisdiction of the land occupied by the embassy shall fall under the Government represented therein.
4. Both nations are to encourage the development of diplomatic, economic and ties regarding the transport of peoples and goods between them.
5. The signing parties agree to a share of wanted peoples in both nations, further ensuring the national integrity of the signing parties.
 - a. Both parties are committed to the apprehension and sentencing of those who violate the law within each others' territories and will work to maintain an international order of safety and justice.
6. The signatories of this Treaty agree to a state of non-aggression, renouncing any claims to each other's lands and justifications for war against the other party.
